CHURCH HAS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the First Congregational Church of Rochester was held in the vestry, opening with a prayer by the pastor, Mrs. George A. Hill, Jr. Due to the change in date as voted last year all reports were for nine months only. All reports showed activity and progress. The Pilgrim Fellowship and Sunday School are particularly active with a combined membership of over 125. The Women's Guild reported a successful period and have pledged themselves to finance the installation of new rest rooms in the vestry, and the continued support of their adopted war orphan in Korea for the sixth year. Members were told of a proposed gift of new hymnals by subscription in memory of their late pastor, Rev. Vernon Lee Phillips. It is expected that these will be dedicated Easter Sunday. A special meeting is to be called in March to plan a canvass, and the deacons are to begin work forming an ushers corps to assist them in their duties.

Elected to office were: Albert Humphrey, moderator; Mrs. William Warburton, clerk; Mrs. D. Lawrence Hartley, financial secretary; Mrs. Andrew MacGregor, treasurer; C. Clifford Peirce, auditor; Calvin Daggett, deacon 3 years; Albert Humphrey and Victor St. Aubin, trustees 2 years; Mrs. William Warburton and Mrs. Mary Nute, flower committee and Mrs. Doris Gurney, music.

MATTAPOISETT MAN HONORED

In recent years it was General Douglas Mac Arthur who quoted that old saying, "Old soldiers never die, they just fade away." Inspired by these same words, the good friends of Allen Sherman of Hawthorn Street, Mattapoisett, determined that their friend should not be allowed to fade, through their efforts a ceremony was conducted at the home of Donlad Chase. An officer of the Coast Guard was on hand to present the following medals to Allen: Asiatic Pacific Campaign with 4 battle stars, American Campaign, Victory Medal WW2, Good Conduct Medal with Lapel Pin and The Golden Key Award for exceptional speed in radio operation.

This ceremonial re-enactment of Allen's service with the United States Army Air Force might be the first "This is Your Army Life" program ever conducted.

Mrs. Helmuth Heuberger, Jr., matron, announced the following new State projects: building a church model from cardboard, box boards or plywood, making a cuddle toy or doll from stockings, knitting a wheel chair afghan, growing ornamental corn and building a bird feeder from original plans.

It was voted to donate $4 to the Children's Medical Center in Boston. The Lecturer's March prizes were won by Allan Vaughan and Barry Denham.

The 25th birthday anniversary of the Juvenile Grange will be observed Sunday, February 14th. The speaker will be Arthur Thompson of Malden, master of the Massachusetts State Grange. Invitations have been sent to all past masters, first officers and area Juvenile Granges. The February 12th meeting will be omitted.

Following the business meeting, Herbert Arral of Mattapoisett gave a chalk talk with animal picutres. He also did several caricatures of the members. A gift was presented to Mr. Arral by Sandra Farwell. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served by Sandra and Joanne Farwell.

Catherine Alves, Barry Denham, Donald Dorr, Doris Fearing, Joanne Farwell, Allan Vaughan and Warren Vaughan will comprise a committee to decorate the hall for the anniversary party.

LION'S CLUB TO CONDUCT CALENDAR DRIVE

Mattapoisett Lion's Club members will conduct a door to door campaign to solicit for their Community Calendar this week-end. The calendar will contain a listing of birthdays, anniversaries and civic activities, as in the past. It has grown from modest beginnings into the most successful method of raising funds for the organization which are used for various service projects, charities and endowments. Depending on response, plans are to award financial aid to one or more Mattapoisett studends now attending college. The project closes Feb. 24, 1960. Helped last year were the blind, disabled veterans, retarded children and sports for normal children. A respirator was bought for the police ambulance, special equipment for the Fire Dept. and a Public Beach Cabana was erected.
